What do small, medium and large firms all have in common? Corporate Social Responsibility Plans. What are the benefits, both corporate and social, of having a policy? Come hear from representatives from three area firms who have placed a priority on Corporate Social Responsibility. You will walk away with five steps to create or update your own plan.

Marie Hurst has a Bachelor of Science in Interior Design and 20 years of commercial design experience. She is a LEED AP, NCIDQ certified, and is a licensed interior designer by the State of Florida.

Marie has a passion for sustainable living and incorporated that passion into her interior design business. She became a LEED AP in 2007 and formed Greenspace Interior Design. She is an active member of USGBC NF chapter and is serving as Co-Chair of the Programs Committee, is on the Board of the IFMA Jacksonville Chapter, ABC Women's Council, CREW, and ASID.

Korey Konopasek has an Associate Degree in Culinary Arts and a Bachelor Degree in Food & Beverage Management. Korey worked in Las Vegas at the Hilton and the Rio for seven years. In 2005, he relocated to Jacksonville and is currently the Director of Operations for Chartwells Dining at UNF.

Greg Clary is the president and founder of Clary & Associates, Inc. He is a licensed professional surveyor and mapper (PSM) in the state of Florida. He has over 30 years of experience in surveying and mapping, professional team development and management and provides expert guidance and counsel throughout each project. He is currently a member of the Clay County Economic Development Advisory Board. Clary also plays an active role in regional community support, most recently joining the Regional Community Institute's Transportation Committee.
