

NORTH FLORIDA

We look forward to seeing you at this month's chapter

City of Jacksonville Animal Care and Protective Services LEED Certification Case Study

Please join us for the Animal Care and Protective Services LEED Certification Case Study. The new 40,000-square-foot shelter will serve as the cornerstone of "green" building for the city's sustainability initiative.

Tom Norman, A.I.A., LEED AP, Principal at Ebert Norman Brady Architects, served as the project designer for several notable sustainable projects including UNF LEED Silver Parking Services Building and the Animal Care and Protective Services Building.

David Mantia, LEED AP, Auld & White Constructors, LLC, served in the capacity of Assistant Project Manager and LEED Administrator for the project. Currently he is an active member of the North Florida Chapter of the USGBC and serves as Co-Chair of the Green School Advocate Committee.

Nathan Marty, LEED AP, Auld & White Constructors, LLC, served as Project Manager for the Design Build delivery of the project. He was responsible for managing the design and construction process and leading the LEED certification process through design and construction.

Ebenezer Gujjarlapudi currently serves as the Director of the Environmental and Compliance Department within the City of Jacksonville which consists of the Environmental Quality Division, Municipal Code Compliance Division, Public Parking & Enforcement Division, Mosquito Control Division, Animal Care & Control Division, and the Consumer Affairs Division.
